Chimes, vocal class; Quarter-Day (part seperformances of the Mozart Association.) The Mozart is a musical organization of which the good people of this fair city should be proud, and the success it has achieved during its short career is no doubt fully appreciated by the members and their many friends. Last night the fifty-ninth musicale drew to Association Hall one of the largest and most brilliant audiences ever assembled within its walls. The attractiveness of the programme, doubtless, had much to do with the full house; but the acceptable manner in which it was rendered will surely be sufficient to fill the hall hereafter.

The orchestra was full, and performed with spirit and accuracy Rossini's superb overture "L'Italienne a Alger," Suppi's overture "Poet and Peasant," and the favorite waltzes "On the Beautiful Blue Dan-ube," by Straus. "The Trumpeter's Farewell" was produced with beautiful effect-Mr. Beier being on the outside of the hall with his cornet, while the brass band on the stage played the accompaniment. But perhaps the vocal attractions were the most. prominent upon this occasion, and surely Misses Swain and Redford, and Messrs. Redford and Grant, have never sung with more taste or pleasing effect as a quartette than in Flotow's "Spinning-Wheel Quartette" from Martha. Mr. Grant sang by request, "The Two Grenadiers," by Schumann. The words of this song, if we mistake not, are by the celebrated German poet Heinrich Heine, and are full of feeling. The applause with which it was received was sufficient evidence of its being highly appreciated. Miss and Mr. Redford sang most charmingly Abt's "Fliege du Voglein." The "Jewel Song" from Faust, by Miss Alice Swain, was a most brilliant rendition of a very difficult composition. The higher notes were delivered with the clearness and exactness of a flute; and when she sang "Lullaby Baby, Dear," by Wheat, it was apparent how perfectly at home she was in the different styles of music. This latter she sang with great simplicity and feeling, and was rapturously encored. Both she and Miss Redford were the recipients of beautiful floral offerings. Upon the whole, the Mozart Association may be congratulated upon the programme offered its members upon this occasion, and we doubt if any beretofore has been better received or as well

THE PRIMARY ELECTION.

RICHMOND, VA., FRIDAY MORNING. JUNE 29, 1877.

THE STRUGGLE FOR RICHMOND'S DELEGATES.

QUIET DAY, BAD WEATHER, AND NOT A LARGE VOTE-DANIEL FIRST, LEE SE-COND. TALIAFERRO CLOSE THIRD, AND LITTLE BILLY FOURTH-THE PROPOSED APPORTIONMENT OF DELEGATES-A DIF-FERENCE OF OPINION ABOUT FRACTIONS-YE LOCAL'S ESTIMATE.

The vote cast at the Conservative primary election yesterday was rather smaller than was expected, and far below that of May, 1876, when over 6,200 citizens participated in the primary which nominated councilmen and municipal officers. The people have by no means seemed indifferent to the contest between the candidates, and it was believed that at least 5,000 Conservatives would exercise the right of expressing their preference for Governor in the way provided by the committee. Whether the falling off was due to the small number of voting-places provided, and the consequent trouble persons were put to to vote, or was owing to the unfavorable weather, or to some other cause, cannot be easily deter-

The polls were opened at sunrise (4:45), when the weather was quite pleasant, and for three or four hours the voting was brisk, and gave promise of a greater turnout than the result shows. The standing of the candidates in the city was bulletined at the Dispatch office every two or three hours, and fragmentary returns were given as they came in. At 92 o'clock the situation was as follows:

Lee and Mahone, it will be seen, were together (303), and Taliaferro was not far in front of them. Taliaferro was then ahead in Monroe Ward and in Madison Ward, and Fitz. Lee was leading in Clay Ward, and Daniel was first in the other wards, with Lee pushing him closely in Jefferson Ward. At noon Daniel had gained considerably, Taliaferro and Lee were running "neckand-neck," and "Little Billy" was moving after the two latter with quick strides-as follows:

PAST MIDDAY. The returns procured about 2 o'clock showed Daniel still in the van, Taliaferro coming up nobly, and Fitz. Lee and Mahone following on at no great distance in the rear. Fitz. Lee's friends had voted about five more in Jefferson than Daniel's. Daniel, after a long and close struggle with Talia-Colonel Holliday's friends—at least many of them-finding that he would not get much of a showing here, distributed their strength. Daniel, Taliaferro, and Lee each got some. Some Holliday men, however, that they would go on record for him even if he did not get a single delegate. The vote at 2 o'clock was about as fol-Taliaferro.....

At 3 o'clock Daniel still remained in the ront. Taliaferro, from being second had dropped to third, and Fitz. Lee had his place (by one vote), and Mahone was fourth. The increase of vote was not great and the weather was unfavorable (light rain), as it had been for several hours. The Fitz. Lee men were highly elated when we bullctined the result, as follows:

Carriages were employed to carry voters o the poils for Mahone, Lee, and Daniel-Taliaferro men marched along on foot under umbrellas and were content.

There was no great excitement down town, but the interest was sufficient to keep a crowd around our bulletins all day.

NEARING NIGHTFALL.

Between 3 and 6 o'clock much active work was done for the candidates. In Marshall, Jefferson, Clay, and Jackson wards Daniel was in the lead. Taliaferro was ahead in Monroe and Madison wards, and Fitz. Lee was second in Jefferson, Marshall, and Clay wards, and was well up in Jackson. The weather was rather more favorable, and the spirit of the early morning at the polls was somewhat revived. Our

Between 6 o'clock and sunset some four or five hundred votes were cast. The Daniel men, with their splendid organiza-tion and committeemen with red badges, friends of the other candidates to renewed exertions. The consequence was that for the last hour nearly all the voting-precincts were crowded, and the workingmen on their way home were "waylald" and taken up in carriages and carried off to vote. The commissioners of election, after the polls were closed, met at the rooms of the

City Committee and ascertained the final re-

The following apportlonment was made ast night, after the adjournment of the City Committee, on this scheme: The basis of representation in a ward was first ascertained by dividing the number of votes cast in the ward by the number of delegates the ward is entitled to. Then the number of votes each candidate received was divided by the quotient (basis of representation) obtained as stated, thus giving the number of delegates without reference to fractions. Daniel carried Marshall, Jefferson, and Jackson wards-that is, he got the highest number of votes in each of those wards. In like manner Taliaferro carried Madison and Monroe, and Lee carried Clay Ward by one vote). The closest contests were in Jefferson

Ward between Lee and Daniel, Madison Ward between Daniel and Taliaferro, and Clay Ward between Daniel and Lee. In Monroe Ward Taliaferro kept the lead throughout. Monroe gave the largest vote.

ST. PATRICK'S FEMALE SCHOOL.

CLOSING EXERCISES AND ANNUAL DISTRI BUTION OF MEDALS AND PREMIUMS-IN-TERESTING EXERCISES-LARGE ATTEND-ANCE-ADDRESS BY BISHOP GIBBONS. &c.

The scholastic year of 1876-'77 at St. Patrick's Female School, situated on Twentyfifth street near Grace, closed yesterday. This was the last of the commencements of the Catholic schools in the city, and was attended with the usual interest manifested on such occasions. This school is under has gone down James river for a long time the charge of the Sisters of Charity, with Sister Rosalie as Superior, and is one of the largest of the Catholic schools in Richmond, nearly two hundred children having attended during the past year.

The commencement exercises were held in the basement of St. Patrick's church in are going fast at LEVY BROTHERS'. the presence of a large concourse of spectators. The clergymen present were Right Rev. Bishop Gibbons, Rev. Fathers Kelly, Hanley, Habets, Hegele, and Bernardine. The programme, which in all its features | dals, Prince Alberts, Oxfords, Newports, Magnolias was excellently rendered, was as follows:
